Package Description

Explore the stunning beauty of Uttarakhand which is a place filled with tranquil lakes, snow-capped peaks and an abundance of wildlife. This unforgettable trip takes you through the most beautiful and diverse locations including Nainital, Ranikhet, and Jim Corbett National Park -which blends relaxation, spirituality and adventure in an unforgettable journey.

Start your journey in Nainital which is a charming hill town that is often referred to as Nainital, which is also known as the "Lake District in India." The town is located in the emerald-green Naini Lake, Nainital offers stunning panoramas of the Himalayan Mountains as well as the perfect setting to unwind. You can enjoy boating in Naini Lake, stroll along the vibrant Mall Road, visit the Naina Devi Temple, and go on a cable car trip towards Snow View Point for panoramic views. If you're hiking through forests or sipping a cup of coffee along the lake's shores, Nainital promises peace and natural beauty every time you step.

Then, travel to Ranikhet which is a tranquil retreat with orchards and pine forests. Visit the holy Jhula Devi Temple, famous for its numerous bells, and stroll through the beautiful Chaubatia Gardens, which are home to peaches, apples, and the apricots. Make sure to visit the Gandhi Kuti the place the location where Mahatma Gandhi used to stay an idyllic place that is still a beacon of peace and simplicity.

In the end, take a plunge into the wild at Jim Corbett National Park, the country's most famous and oldest wildlife sanctuary. Experience an exciting jeep safari through the lush forest, and you may see Royal Bengal Tigers, elephants, and deer, as well as an amazing range of birds. The park's natural beauty as well as thrilling experiences are a dream for wildlife and nature photographers as well.

This Nainital-Ranikhet-Corbett tour is a delightful blend of nature, culture, and adventure, offering the perfect escape into the heart of Uttarakhand's pristine beauty.
