Package Description

Munnar is called "Kashmir of South India" and has large expanses of tea plantations, forests, diverse wildlife, valleys and mountains. Extremely famous for its beautiful backwaters, the city of Alleppey in Kerala is also known for its beaches, temples and traditional boat races.

A trip to Munnar and Alleppey provides a once in a lifetime insight into Kerala's picturesque scenery and tranquil backwaters. Munnar, called the "Kashmir of South India," is a beautiful hill resort renowned for its undulating tea plantations, mist-shrouded valleys, and cool climate. Munnar is a perfect place for nature enthusiasts, couples, and adventure sports. Eravikulam National Park, Mattupetty Dam, and the Tea Museum are some of the major places of attraction where one can see the history of tea plantations.

Following a tour of Munnar's rich green hills, the tour generally proceeds to Alleppey, popularly called the "Venice of the East." Alleppey is known for its extensive backwater network, backwater cruises, and serene scenery. Houseboat stay at Alleppey is a highlight, with a unique opportunity to float through serene canals lined with swaying palms and golden paddy fields. Local experiences of Kerala meals aboard the houseboat, along with a peek into village life, are enjoyed by visitors.

The Kerala Munnar Alleppey Tour is the perfect union of the refreshing highlands of Munnar and soothing backwaters of Alleppey. It is a must-go for everyone who wants to witness the natural splendor of Kerala as well as the cultural diversity. If you are looking for adventure, relaxation, or a romantic escape, the tour is sure to leave lifelong memories.

FAQs

Q. How many days are ideal for a trip to Munnar and Alleppey?

Ans. Ideally, a 4 to 5 days trip plan is sufficient to visit Munnar as well as Alleppey. Take 2 days to see

Munnar's hill country, waterfalls, and tea plantations, and 1 or 2 days for Alleppey's backwater houseboat cruise and nearby beaches to have a leisurely, satisfying visit.

Q. When is the ideal time to visit Munnar and Alleppey?

Ans. The ideal time for a visit is from September to March when the climate is cool and pleasant. Munnar experiences refreshing, misty weather, while Alleppey backwaters are full of life and vitality, making it apt for sightseeing, cruising, as well as outdoor activities.

Q. Can I have a houseboat stay in Alleppey throughout the year?

Ans. Yes, there are houseboat stays throughout the year in Alleppey. Still, the experience is truly enjoyable from September to March when the weather is cooler. During the monsoon period (June to August), although the backwaters are looking beautiful, there may be some activities restricted due to heavy rainfall.

Q. How can I travel from Munnar to Alleppey?

Ans. The distance from Munnar to Alleppey is roughly 170 kilometers and can be traveled by car or taxi for about 4.5 to 5 hours. It is a popular option with many travelers to book a private cab for a scenic ride through Kerala's picturesque countryside.
