Package Description

In the heart of Madhya Pradesh, every city has a story to tell about grandeur, religion, and beauty that never goes out of style. Start in Indore, a lively city where royal palaces like Rajwada and Lal Bagh tell stories of times long past, while the smells of Sarafa Bazaar and Chappan Dukan delights fill the streets. Indore is a city that mixes culture, flavor, and devotion in every corner, from the beautiful Kanch Mandir to the holy Khajrana Ganesh Temple. Go on to Ujjain, the holy city on the banks of the Shipra River. It is home to the powerful Mahakaleshwar Jyotirlinga and the famous Kumbh Mela. Ujjain is known as the "Greenwich of India" because it contains spiritual energy and old wisdom that has drawn pilgrims for hundreds of years. Then go to Maheshwar, a beautiful place beside the river where the Narmada flows gently and the regal ghats and temples are very impressive. The Raj Rajeshwar Temple has beautiful, complicated architecture, and the handwoven Maheshwari sarees are as exquisite as the town itself. These three cities together provide a trip of soul, tradition, and timeless beauty that portrays the true character of Central India.
