FAQs.

Q. How should I pack for a multi-destination Kerala tour—will the weather vary across places like Munnar and Alleppey?

Ans. Yes, the weather does vary. Munnar and Thekkady are cooler hill stations, so light woollens or jackets are recommended. Alleppey and Cochin are warmer and humid, so breathable clothing, sunscreen, and comfortable footwear are ideal. An umbrella or raincoat is also wise if you're travelling during the monsoon.

Q. Can I customize this Kerala package by adding or skipping locations?

Ans. Most travel providers allow customization. If you prefer more time in one location or want to skip a destination like Thekkady or Cochin, itineraries can usually be adjusted to suit your interests and pace. Be sure to discuss changes in cost or duration with your travel agent.

Q. Are there any adventure or local activities included in this tour package?

Ans. Yes, depending on the provider, the package may include activities like spice plantation tours in Thekkady, tea garden walks in Munnar, bamboo rafting in Periyar, or houseboat cruises in Alleppey. Cultural shows and Kathakali performances in Cochin may also be available as optional add-ons.

Q. Is this Kerala tour package good for honeymooners or romantic getaways?

Ans. Definitely! Munnar's misty hills, Alleppey's private houseboats, and scenic sunset points make this itinerary very popular among honeymooners. Many packages offer romantic add-ons like candlelight dinners, decorated rooms, or special couple activities upon request.
