Package Description

Experience the spectacular beauty of the landscape and tranquility that is Himachal Pradesh, on a scenic trip between Dharamshala, Khajjiar, and Dalhousie. Start your journey in Dharamshala which is nestled in the deodar forests and peaks that are snow-capped. The tranquil hill town is the home of the His Holiness Dalai Lama and the tranquil Thekchen Choling Temple Complex. Explore the Tibetan market, admire breathtaking views of The Dhauladhar mountain range and take in the mystical atmosphere in McLeod Ganj.

The next stop is Khajjiar, popularly referred to by the name of "Mini Switzerland of India." The lush meadow-like plateau is covered with thick pine forests and boasts an idyllic lake in its heart. Explore the historic Khajji Nag Temple and take an easy hike or ride around the countryside. For those who love wildlife, you can visit the adjacent Kalatop Sanctuary.

Finish your trip with a visit to Dalhousie, an idyllic town that is spread over five hills that is rich in colonial splendor. Explore beautiful trekking routes such as Dainkund Peak and relax at tranquil spots like Subhash Baoli, offering sweeping views of the mountains. This trip is the perfect mixture of culture, nature and spirituality.
