Package Description

Odisha, a country filled with ancient religion as well as natural beauty, welcomes you on a trip unlike any other. Start your journey by visiting Puri in the holy coastal city, which is home to the famous Jagannath Temple. Enjoy the divine atmosphere when you walk through the golden beaches and watch the rhythmic surf of Bay of Bengal meet centuries-old dedication. Experience the energy and spirit that attracts millions of pilgrims each year during the Rath Yatra.

After that, you can immerse yourself in the peaceful nature in Bhitarkanika National Park which is one of the most thriving ecosystems in India. Explore dense Mangrove trees which are home to the nation's largest collection of saltwater Crocodiles. Find rare species of deer, birds, and reptiles while exploring an area of unique biodiversity, which is truely an undiscovered treasure for wildlife enthusiasts and nature photographers alike.

End your journey with a visit to Bhubaneswar, well-known for being the "Temple City of India." Admire the stunning architecture of old temples made of sandstone, such as Lingaraja Temple and Rajarani Temple that reflect Odisha's rich spiritual and artistic tradition. Every structure tells tales of an era of glory and eternal love for God.
