FAQs.

Q. What are the main features incorporated in this 8-day Egypt luxury vacation?

Ans. With this tour, you get the perfect combination of ancient history in conjunction with modern luxury. Not only will you visit famous sites such as the Giza Pyramids, Egyptian Museum, and Khan El Khalili Bazaar in Cairo, but you'll experience a luxury Nile Cruise between Aswan and Luxor, complete with guided visits to legendary sites such as Philae Temple, Kom Ombo, Edfu Temple, Karnak, and the Valley of the Kings. Package features luxury accommodation, internal flights, Egyptologist guides, and most meals are included.

Q. Is the Nile Cruise really luxurious, and what kind of experience can I expect on board?

Ans. Indeed! This package features a five-star Nile Cruise experience with spacious cabins, sun decks that offer stunning panoramas, gourmet meals, a swimming pool, as well as evening entertainment options. Passengers can unwind on the scenic journey down the historic Nile River as they experience in-depth activities with guided on-shore visits at every ancient temple destination.

Q. Are there any cultural etiquette or dress codes I should observe in visiting the temples and in local markets?

Ans. Yes, modest dress is advisable, particularly at visits to temples and religious monuments. Lightweight covering for the shoulder and knees is proper and suitable for Egypt's climate. For visits to markets such as the Khan El Khalili Bazaar, polite haggling is acceptable and usually expected. Permission should be asked before photographing locals.

Q. Is this tour appropriate for family or mobility-challenged seniors with moderate mobility?

Ans. Indeed. This luxury tour is carefully planned for balance between exploration and relaxation. Most destinations can be reached via paved paths, with easy-going pacing, making it perfect for families and seniors alike. Ancient temples, however, may include uneven ground or stairs. Private transfer and personalized staff also guarantee uninterrupted, stress-free experience.
