Package Description

Discover a mix that is a blend of nature, colonial charm and spiritual depth in this enriching trip throughout Dharamshala, Dalhousie, and Amritsar. Begin your journey in Dharamshala, which is a tranquil Himalayan town that is the residence of the His Highness Dalai Lama and the Tibetan government-in-exile. With deodar forests surrounding it and snow-capped peaks, Dharamshala is a tranquil getaway with its monasteries, Tibetan religious centers as well as the peaceful atmosphere that is McLeod Ganj.

Continue on to Dalhousie, the quiet hill station that is spread over five picturesque hills. With its old-fashioned structures, pine-covered valleys and sweeping panoramas across Dalhousie's Dhauladhar mountain range, its a great spot to enjoy relaxing nature treks. Explore popular places such as Panchpula, Subhash Baoli, and admire the stunning views from Dainkund Peak.

Finish your trip in the historical city of Amritsar which is the spiritual capital of Punjab. In Amritsar, the stunning Golden Temple reflects beautifully in the sacred Amrit Sarovar, offering a strong feeling of peace and love. Visit the lively bazaars, taste Punjabi cuisine, and observe the patriotic spirit at The Wagah Border Ceremony.
