FAQs

Q. Will I have enough free time to explore local cafes, markets, or take a hot air balloon ride in Cappadocia?

Ans: Indeed, the tour is carefully composed to have a balance of guided touring and free time at leisure. Particularly in Cappadocia, you can look forward to the famous hot air balloon ride (optional) and indulge in the shops, cave cafes, or even short walks in the area.

Q. Are the internal flights from Istanbul to Cappadocia part of the package, or do they need to be booked individually?

Ans: Most of the packages feature the internal flight from Istanbul to Cappadocia (and return) to save you time and inconvenience. Double-check, however, at the time of booking, with the tour operator regarding flight inclusions.

Q. Is the tour appropriate for families traveling with children or senior citizens?

Ans: Indeed. The tour is carefully timed so it suits visitors of any ages. Although there is some easy walking and available adventurous options, facilities and options can be arranged so that visitors requiring more comfort can have them too.

Q. What will the accommodation be like—do we stay in a cave hotel in Cappadocia?

Ans: Yes, one of the special points of this tour is experiencing a stay in a traditional cave hotel in Cappadocia to get the genuine feel of it. In Istanbul, one will generally stay in centrally located boutique hotels or 3 to 4-star rated accommodations.

Q. Can the itinerary be customized—are there any opportunities to include more nights or merge it with a different city in Turkey?

Ans: Most tour operators provide flexible arrangements. One can typically extend the stay in either Istanbul or in Cappadocia, or include destinations like Pamukkale or Ephesus in the itinerary. Just inform the tour consultant beforehand for a personalized experience.
