Package Description

Experience the lively appeal of Central India through the cultural triumvirate of Indore, Ujjain, and Maheshwar – where regal legacy, heavenly vitality, and timeless elegance come together in perfect harmony. Start your trip in Indore, a city that will wow you with its beautiful Rajwada and Lal Bagh Palaces, the sparkling Kanch Mandir, and the mouthwatering smell of street food at Sarafa Bazaar and Chappan Dukan. You can either explore the busy markets full of Maheshwari sarees and local products, or you can get away from it all in nature at Patalpani Waterfall and Ralamandal Sanctuary. Go on to Ujjain, one of India's most holy cities, where the Shipra River flows through it and faith and history mix. See the beautiful Mahakaleshwar Jyotirlinga, the Kumbh Mela, and the Greenwich of India, where time and tradition meet in spiritual harmony. Maheshwar, a beautiful town on the peaceful Narmada River, is the last stop on your trip. The town has a peaceful grandeur that has inspired poets, queens, and visitors alike. It features beautiful ghats, stunning temples, and the fine craftsmanship of Maheshwari sarees. These three places provide for an interesting trip through history, devotion, and art, each one portraying the true character of Madhya Pradesh.
