Half Day Dubai City Tour

Dubai, United Arab Emirates | City Tour

Tour Description

The Half Day Dubai City Tour is an excellent opportunity to see the most famous and attractive sights as well as to try more authentic dishes in not even half a day. Ideal for persons with little time or those who have a tight schedule, this guided tour will provide an insight into the best that the Scenic city has to offer in traditional and modern architecture in an exciting fascinating tour. Your tour begins at the Burj Khalifa, the world's tallest building and eyes should be opened to the spectacular structures of modern design along with the amazing beauty of this vast city. This architectural marvel is some of the many testaments to Dubai's phenomenal growth and the city's obsession with construction that resulted to this marvellous skyscraper; however, the view of the skyline from here cannot be beaten.

The Half Day Dubai City Tour does also take a glimpse at the historical aspect of Dubai as it goes to the Al Fahad Historical District. Full of small colourful houses similar to wind towers and narrow streets, this beautiful area unveils Dubai's history. Here you are participating in Dubai Museum which is in Al Fahad Fort which is the oldest building in Dubai and a perfect example of how the city has evolved from just a fishing village into a global trading centre with tremendous tourist attractions. Every tour of Dubai requires the tourist to taste the famous gold and spice souks in the Deira district. Experience the market alleys teeming with crowd, which the fragrance of spices invades, take home souvenirs, spices and beautiful gold ornaments.
